

Manager (m/w/x) in Management Consulting

Location: Munich

Your tasks

As a Manager at Strategy Engineers you will take on the different challenges a management consultant faces in the transformation of the mobility industry towards sustainable technologies. From day one, you are responsible for the implementation and leadership of a small team of younger consultants. You will contribute your existing expert knowledge and leadership skills. Within the scope of your project management role, you are supporting our customers in the development and implementation of strategic and operational solutions.

Besides leading a team of younger colleagues, you will aim to recognize the individual talents of each team member and to use and develop them further in the best possible way. As a mentor and coach you regularly give feedback. You will also be actively involved in the company's development and help to expand and share specific expertise within the company.

Your benefits

- We actively give you the opportunity to take over the managing role of projects
- You will take on the responsibility of presenting team results to our customers' decision-makers
- We offer an individual mentoring program and a distinctive feedback culture to optimally promote and support your career
- You benefit from our specific trainings to expand your skills
- We have a flexible, hybrid working model where you can always work remotely, as long as the project allows it
- We support our employees with a number of company benefits (e.g. sabbatical programs, mobility policy incl. JobRad, EGYM Wellpass, team & family events etc.)

Your profile

- At least five years of relevant professional experience in management consulting of technology-driven industry
- Experienced in leading a management consultancy project team
- Excellent university degree from a renowned university
- Fascination for technology and strategic questions going beyond the actual product itself
- Strong entrepreneurial thinking and acting
- Excellent analytical skills
- Ability to work in a team and team leading, business fluent English and German, empathy, flexibility, enthusiasm and the willingness to take responsibility

Who we are

Strategy Engineers is an international management consulting company specialised in mobility.
